

Daily Verse and Comment

Exodus 31:15

(15) Six days may work be done, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

A Faithful Version

The Sabbath is "holy to the LORD." This is not something that men dreamed up. God does not say it is holy to certain denominations or certain people. It is holy to the Lord—set apart or sanctified to Him. He Himself sanctified it, as it says right in the commandment.

God, right in this covenant, sets how long it is to be observed or adhered to: as long as there are generations of Israelites. Are the generations of Israelites continuing? Yes, indeed. The generations continue, and therefore this covenant continues.

He also says that the Sabbath and its roots go back to Creation. He takes the Sabbath back to Genesis 2, not Exodus 16. This is significant. God places the beginning of the Sabbath at Creation to confirm that a physical or spiritual Israelite's relationship is with the Creator. The events of Exodus 16 were only a reminder of what already existed from the seventh day of Creation.

— John W. Ritenbaugh

To learn more, see:

The Covenants, Grace, and Law \(Part Twenty-Nine\)

Related Topics:

Sabbath

Sabbath as Holy Time

Sabbath as Memorial of Creation

Sabbath Covenant

Sabbath Holy to the Lord

Sabbath, Sanctifying

Sabbath, Universality of