

The LGBTQ Cultural Revolution (Part One)

The Transgenderism Conspiracy

Martin G. Collins

Given 27-May-17; Sermon #1380c

A March, 2011, edition of MercatorNet featured an article written by Babette Francis, the National and Overseas Coordinator of Endeavour Forum Inc., a pro-life, pro-family NGO which has special consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the UN. The article, entitled, "Gender-bending: Let Me Count the Ways," reveals that gender identity activists have succeeded in pushing the Australian Human Rights Commission [AHRC] to recognize—brace yourselves—23 genders:

In the beginning there was male and female. Soon there was homosexuality. Later there were lesbians, and much later gays, bisexuals, transgenders and queers. But anyone who thinks LGBTQ is the full count of contemporary sexualities is sadly out of date.

For example, the transgendered have for some time been divided into those who are awaiting treatment, those have had hormone treatment, those who have had hormones and surgery, and those who have had hormones and surgery but are not happy and want it all reversed.

Enter the Australian Human Rights Commission with some exciting new developments. In an extraordinary document entitled "Protection from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and sex and/or gender identity", the AHRC has come up with a further list of "genders" which they require us to recognize, and on whose behalf they want our federal government to pass anti-discrimination legislation.

To date (by the time you read this, the AHRC's family of sexualities may have increased and multiplied) these are:

transgender, trans, transsexual, intersex, androgynous, agender, cross dresser, drag king, drag queen, genderfluid, genderqueer, intergender, neutrois, pansexual, pan-gendered, third gender, third sex, sistergirl and brotherboy.

So if we add these genders to the LGBTQ list we get 23 in all, not to mention the divisions within the transgendered group. For PR purposes, however, the "gendered" community now identifies itself as LGBTQI (the "I" stands for "intersex".) Rather than abbreviating I think they should add all the other letters of the alphabet, and then we would all feel protected and not discriminated against.

What a world. We keep asking ourselves, "Can it get any worse?"

Progressives have been conspiring to reshape society by projecting an individual disorder to the whole of society and then demanding the delusion be shared by all. Here we are in 2017.

How many more than 23 progressive genders are there now? Satan has an answer to that, I'm sure, and it would be, "Let me count the ways!" There is no end to how much perversion he can influence us toward.

The social "normalization" of transgenderism is effectively a strong social mind trap that demands people abandon reason and agree to participate in a popular social delusion fueled by peer pressure.

Let's leave no doubt about how society defines "transgender" in its politically correct way. Wikipedia defines "Transgender" this way:

Transgender people are people who have a gender identity or gender expression that differs from their assigned sex. Transgender people are sometimes called transsexual if they desire medical assistance to transition from one sex to another.

Transgender is also an umbrella term: in addition to including people whose gender identity is the opposite of their assigned sex, it may include people who are not exclusively masculine or feminine. Other definitions of transgender also include people who belong to a third gender, or conceptualize transgender.

Where is this all headed? The operative word in all of this is the word “gender.” Cultural revolutionaries are intent on redefining the word. Then, using the police power of the state, they want to insist that people be guaranteed a right to somehow choose their gender and change their mind at whim. In effect, they seek to engage in a cultural revolution.

The Gender Identity Movement insists upon the recognition in the civil rights law of such a so-called new found right to somehow choose one's gender. This is a biological and psychological impossibility! Yet, the progressive advocates of this movement insist upon laws which accommodate, fund, and enforce this “right.” Those involved in the activist wing of the movement want to compel the rest of society to recognize their vision of a brave new world or face the police power of the state if we refuse.

The profound falsehood of this theory and of the anthropological revolution contained within it is obvious. Gender is a gift. It is also a given. The cultural revolution that the Gender Identity Movement is promoting and forcing down the throats of everyone is a veiled conspiratorial attempt to destroy the sanctity of marriage and the family.

In an article in the Wall Street Journal, published on June 12, 2014, Dr. Paul R. McHugh, wrote about a medical fact: sex change, or what is now routinely called "sexual reassignment surgery" is what he called "biologically impossible." He also referred to what is routinely called "transgenderism" as a mental disorder.

Does this man know anything? He certainly does. Dr. McHugh is a distinguished service professor of psychiatry at Johns Hopkins and served as their chief psychiatrist for almost three decades. He further declared that those who promote sex change operations are not helping but hurting people with this disorder. He said: “People who undergo sex-reassignment surgery do not change from men to women or vice versa. Rather, they become feminized men or masculinized women.” This was a man who worked for Johns Hopkins during the course of time that they were giving sex-change operations since the late '60s. He saw this first hand.

God was very clear in Deuteronomy 22:5 that this type of perversion was not even to be seen in the clothing a person wore, much less regarding a person's sexual activity.

Deuteronomy 22:5 A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all who do so are an abomination to the Lord your God.

Even clothing is not allowed to express transgenderism, let alone going further than that.

Dr. McHugh went on to say: “Claiming that this is a civil-rights matter and encouraging surgical intervention is in reality to collaborate with and promote a mental disorder.”

This is ultimately harmful to the person suffering from their dissociative identity disorder. You don't help people heal and integrate by projecting their fractured self-image to the entire world. This is why even the World Health Organization considers transgenderism to be a mental disorder.

Despite the facts, the U.S. has already been sucked into this evil quagmire through the efforts of political and academic leaders. They have successfully moved this into corporations, such as Target. The city of Charlotte, North Carolina, has been fighting this very issue for several years now.

Former U.S. President Barack Obama's years were marked by an obsession with transgender rights. His focus is based on his scorn of the natural order, reinvention of what is human, and exaltation of desire. Obsession with gender is a convenient distraction to avoid facing matters that are more difficult and less pleasant.

Even worse is the precedent of social acceptance of the delusions transgenderism demands we all accept as real. The social contract underlying transgenderism is that every person in society should pretend that someone is something they clearly are not by any objective definition.

The Western world today is involved in a colossal, childish game of make-believe. The widespread unwillingness to tell people a simple truth that might be offensive in some way is characteristic of the weak-mindedness of the progressive Left. Their opposition to the truth enslaves them in a destructive lifestyle diametrically opposed to God.

In John 8:32, Jesus Christ says, “You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.” Free from the wiles of Satan; free from the lie.

Telling someone an obvious and simple truth they might not want to hear is now regarded as a sort of hate crime that earns you an accusation of intolerance and bigotry. The assertion is that because the truth “hurts” someone’s fractured, distorted, self-image, it should be shamed in a “tolerant” society. Yet, if tolerance is defined as the popular furtherance of mental delusion and derision, then the pop culture definition of “tolerance” is obviously insanely wrong.

Our all-wise Creator God (the true authority on gender) sets us straight by inspiring the apostle Paul to write,

Romans 1:24-28 Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies among themselves, who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. For this reason God gave them up to vile passions. For even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature. Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting;

Satan has convinced these evil social engineers to enslave these people in a miserable life, leading to an early death. It is no less than a demonic ploy to confuse, divide, and conquer the minds God created, and to destroy the sanctity of marriage and the family.

In my next commentary, we will look at the impact this satanic, degenerate, cultural revolution is having on children in the society.
